

Simpson Park Camp's Annual Camp Meeting July 27 - August 5, 2018 You're coming, right?

It's time for the annual pilgrimage to Simpson Park Camp, and the time-honored tradition celebrates its 153rd year this summer. When the Israelites made their way to Jerusalem each year for the feasts, they often traveled in groups, sang and worshipped together all the way to the holy city. While you may not be coming in droves on foot with camels in tow, you CAN come with shouts of praise! Reconnect with other faithful pilgrims and get to know and welcome some new ones. Come experience a sense of God's presence that quiets the mind and spirit, and brings joy to the heart. Take a look. Come for ten days of fellowship and inspiration, or come for one day or a weekend!

New this year - Introducing a theme for Annual Camp Meeting.

Our theme this year: "Fear Not: Daring To Live Boldly" Scripture: "So do not fear, for I am with you; do not be dismayed, for I am your God. I will strengthen you and help you; I will uphold you with my righteous right hand." Isaiah 41:10 (NIV)

One Week - Three Camps.

Family Camp - Featured Speakers:

Tom Harmon, and Jerry and Jan Coleman will be featured speakers for daily worship in our historic, open-air Nixon Tabernacle. Dr. Dan Schafer, Greg Martin, and Beth Copeland will be our Missions Day speakers.

First Friday Featured Speaker: Mick Veach

Annual Camp Meeting kicks off with worship Friday evening, July 27th with a message from local Pastor Mick Veach. Mick lives in Detroit and is a Pastor of newly formed church called Mosaic Midtown Church. His past experiences are diverse - he was Country Director for World Hope International for 10 years and more recently served as the pastor at Stoney Creek Community Church in Washington Township, Michigan for 9 years.

Youth Camp Featured Speaker: Michael Hewitt

Alongside Family Camp, Youth Camp is for grades 7 - 12, beginning on Sunday, July 29 - Sunday, August 5. It's a week of instruction in practical Christianity, worship services for inspiration and Christian commitment, Wellspring Praise band, recreational programs, personal sharing, and informal contact experiences with other youth who share Christian values and commitment.

Children's Camp Featured Speaker: Dan Cutchen

Over 100 children participate in our annual Children's Program which runs simultaneously alongside Family Camp, from Saturday evening, July 28 - Saturday morning, August 4. Services and activities are offered during morning and evening worship, as well as special activities each weekday afternoon for the family, such as a Luau and fishing at the pond. The Children's Camp presents their program in the Tabernacle on Friday evening, August 4th for all to enjoy. A parent or guardian must be present on the grounds while children participate in the Children's Camp Program.

You're invited to join us.

Outside historic Romeo, a charming fifty-five acre revival era country village transports you to a distraction-free bygone era. In the mid-1800s throughout the north and south, the phenomena of camp meetings paralleled a wave of spiritual revival. Simpson Park is Michigan's oldest such continually-operated camp, recognized by the Michigan Historic Sites Registry.

There are so many wonderful things planned for everyone. For the whole schedule and speakers, visit our website at www.simpsonparkcamp.org. For additional information, please visit contact Simpson Park Camp by phone at (586) 752-3202, or email spcamp@simpsonparkcamp.org.
